

Which Area

Contact Vice President for your Area

So you need to contact one of our two Vice Presidents.

You need first to decide which Vice President to contact for your area.

Currently the UK has been split into the following Areas:-

In order that AUHS can share out the heavy work load since we are spread so far over the British Isles. It was necessary to appoint two Vice Presidents who will cover different areas of the UK and abroad.

To make it easier for you to decide in which area you fall. We have written up this list.
